

Distinguished Mentor Award (DMA) 2024 Nomination Form

Please fill out the details below by typing directly onto the form and emailing the completed form to lisa.kozlowski@jefferson.edu by 5pm on Friday, August 2, 2024.

The following is a list of qualities that are characteristic of a good mentor. These may be useful for you to consider when preparing your nomination. However, this is by no means an exhaustive list and a mentor does not have to have all of these qualities to be nominated. You are encouraged to describe other qualities of your mentor that you believe you have benefited from as a mentee.

- Positive role model
- Provides intellectual leadership
- Articulates expectations clearly
- Supportive/encouraging
- Enthusiastic
- Approachable and understanding with a genuine interest in the welfare (scientific and otherwise) of mentee
- Provides career guidance to mentee and encourages career development awareness
- Balances sufficient supervision with freedom for mentee to develop independence
- Promotes responsible conduct of research
- Facilitates introduction of mentees to others in their field
- Advocates for postdoctoral welfare and training
- Fosters an equitable and inclusive lab environment

Nominator (Postdoc)

Name: _____

Department: _____

Work address: _____

Email: _____

Cell Phone: _____

Nominee (Mentor)

Name: _____

Position: _____

Department: _____

Work address: _____

Email: _____

Cell Phone: _____

Relationship to nominator (e.g. PI, advisor etc.): _____

In the space below, please describe why you are nominating your mentor for this award. Please pay particular attention to how your mentor has supported, encouraged and promoted your research training, as well as your professional development, personal development, and career goals. (500 word limit):

